Introduction

Atailda Platforms, SAS (hereafter "we", "our", "us") is committed to protecting your privacy and processing your personal data responsibly and in compliance with applicable data protection regulations, including the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This privacy policy describes the types of personal data we collect, how we use it, with whom we share it, and the rights and choices you have regarding your personal data.

Collection of data

We collect personal data about you when you use the Armonium application. The types of personal data we collect may include:

- Identifying information, such as your name and email address, that you provide to us when creating a user account for the application.
- Information about your use of the application, such as the features you use and the interactions you have with the application.
- Location information, such as your geographic location, if you authorize us to access this information.

Use of personal data

We use the personal data we collect to provide, maintain, and improve the Armonium application, as well as to respond to your requests and communicate with you. We may also use this data to:

- Send you push notifications or emails about application updates or new features.
- Inform you about relevant events, products, or services that may be of interest to you.
- Conduct analysis and research to improve and personalize the user experience.

Sharing of data

We do not share your personal data with third parties except in the following cases:

- If we have obtained your prior consent to share your personal data.
- If we are required to share your personal data under the law or a court decision.
- If we need to share your personal data with our third-party service providers who help us provide, maintain, and improve the Armonium application.
- If we sell or transfer all or part of our business or assets, including the Armonium application, to a third party.

Security of personal data

We take appropriate technical and organizational security measures to protect your personal data against destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized access, disclosure, or use.

Your rights, your choices

You have certain rights and choices regarding your personal data. You may:

- Access and receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- Request the correction of any inaccurate or incomplete personal data we hold about you.
- Request the deletion of your personal data under certain circumstances.
- Object to the processing of your personal data for certain purposes.

To exercise your rights and choices, please contact us using the contact information provided below.
